

Brazil rooftop off-grid energy storage power station

Overview

UCB Power has inaugurated what it says is Brazil's first photovoltaic power plant with sodium battery storage, installed in the remote Amazonian community of Tumbira. The storage system consists of 16 sodium batteries (48 V/50 Ah), with a combined solar battery storage capacity of 38. While 2025 growth is projected to be modest (19.2 GW), the long-term outlook remains robust, with conservative estimates pointing to 90 GW and. China's Risen Energy is deploying containerized BESS units across Brazil's northeast—enough to power 70,000 homes during blackouts [2].
