Investment in a solar power plant is in most cases characterized by fixed assets that carry most of the cost. The most notable pieces of equipment, in this instance, include solar PV modules, batteries, meters, and energy storage systems (ESS). Amid global uncertainties, renewables power stock grew by an impressive 9. The IRENA's report for the year showed that solar and wind were again at the helm of new renewable capacity. Even as the sector celebrates its growth, the right accounting approach is imperative for solar. HLBV is a means of determining the value of the investor's share in the underlying project entity, not simply as an ownership percentage of the total entity but using a function of what the investor would receive if the entity were to be liquidated at its book valuation.
